Reciprocating Machines

Still a lot of pallet companies use reciprocating machines while repairing pallets without realizing that these machines and saw blades are high expenses. Moreover, reciprocating machines are causing a lot of smoke and dust which does not benefit the employee's health. According to health and safety departments dust and smoke are harmful for skin, eyes and respiratory route. For that reason in many companies employees wear facemasks to protect themselves. Cekamon Saws resolves this on its own way as follow:

PalletSaw versus Reciprozaag

Preparing pallets with a PalletSaw goes faster and is additionally cheaper as working with reciprocating machines. The PalletSaw fits in to the repair lines Cekamon Saws offers. Furthermore we have updated our PalletSaw in such a way that smoke and dust are no longer an issue.

The updated PalletSaw

The updated PalletSaw is equipped with
